GETS HIS MONEY NO MATTER WHAT?

Carl Walker, of Richmond, who has signed to pitch with Norfolk early last season, will get his $150 per month whether or not he is able to make good with that team. Manager Win Clarke, of the Norfolk club, said last night he gave Walker this delightfully easy contract because he believes he can deliver the goods. Clarke saw Walker when he pitched for the University of Virginia against Yale at Norfolk early last season. "It was a raw day in the early season," says the pilot of the Crow, "and I was struck with his condition. He has the nerve, is one thing, and another, he has the speed and curves. I expect that he will get his money, and am not afraid of his falling down."

LEADERS DISCUSS CAMPAIGN PLANS

Strenuous Fight Will Be Made in Ninth to Elect Stuart.

PLEASED WITH PROSPECTS

Speakers of State and National Reputation Offer Services.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bristol, Va., March 15.—With manifestations of enthusiasm and confidence, embracing prominent Democrats from all parts of the Ninth District, a conference of the leaders and other influential men of the party was held here this afternoon for the purpose of perfecting plans for the campaign of Henry C. Stuart.

The general response to the call of the chairman for to-day's conference is accepted as an indication of how earnest the Democrats of the district are in their desire to aid Mr. Stuart in his effort to win out in the Ninth this fall.

Hon. R. Tate Irvine, who was chairman of the recent convention which nominated Mr. Stuart, presided over to-day's conference, which was held in the reception parlor of Hotel St. Lawrence. Prominent among the Democrats in attendance were General R. A. Ayers, Peyton F. St. Clair, chairman of the executive committee; B. F. Buchanan and Professor W. D. Smith, members of the executive committee; John A. and Alexander Stuart, of Washington county, and the various members of the new campaign committee.

According to to-day's plans, the Executive Committee of the District is to have direct charge of the campaign, and is to be assisted by the special campaign committee, composed of one prominent Democrat from each county and one from the city of Bristol. Auxiliary to these committees the county organizations, through the county committees, are to lend valiant and persistent aid.

Reports are encouraging.

district would be in active touch with the campaign. This will be done with a view to getting every Democrat to properly qualify by paying his poll tax and having his transfer properly recorded in the event he makes a transfer. At the proper time campaign literature will be distributed over the district in a systematic way, and speakers will be sent to every county. "It is expected," said Chairman Irvine, "that a more thorough educational campaign will be carried on than has marked the efforts of the party in many years. Continuing, he said, "Speakers of State and National reputation are placing themselves at the service of the district for the approaching fight, and I have never before seen so much interest manifested."

Peyton F. St. Clair, of Giles county, was re-elected chairman of the executive committee, and the new committee, which will have charge of the campaign, is made up of Mr. St. Clair and the following additional men: Alex. Stuart, of Lexington; C. O. Otey, of Wytheville, and R. Tate Irvine, of Stone Gap, with one member yet to be named.

Special Campaign Committee. Mr. Irvine has not yet completed his special campaign committee, which is to be auxiliary to the executive committee, but is now only waiting upon recommendations from the counties of Dickenson, Blaine, and Buchanan. The committee, so far as made up at to-day's conference, consists of the following men: O. E. Jordan, of Pulaski; E. B. Shurtz, of Giles; L. Sanders, of Smyth; Alexander Stuart, of Washington; C. C. Palmer, of Staunton; J. H. Clarke, of Wise; R. F. Pennington, of Shenandoah; and Russell, Charles C. Brown, of Tazewell; C. N. Otey, of Wythe, and Henry Roberts, of the city of Bristol.

Judge Rhea, of the Corporation Commission, sent a letter to Chairman St. Clair, in which he said:

"I had hoped to be able to be present at your conference at Bristol, but owing to the fact that the General Assembly has just adjourned, and the addition of work that has been imposed upon the Corporation Commission, I regret to say that it will be impossible for me to leave here. I sincerely trust the conference will result in such an organization that the old Ninth will be re-elected to the Democratic party this fall."

BOOST TOBACCO BUSINESS.

Danville Business Men Show Interest in Property of Market.

Danville, Va., March 15.—The smoker held in the rooms of the Commercial Association here to-night was attended by about 300 representative citizens, and a great deal of interest was manifested. The meeting was held with special reference to the future growth and prosperity of Danville's tobacco trade.

The conference, which was held for the purpose of making known the advantages of Danville and its surroundings, a number of very interesting and valuable reports were made by influential business men.

The Commercial Association has adopted its slogan for 1910—50,000,000 pounds of tobacco for Danville for 1910. After the meeting, over 100 refreshments were served.

BOY MASHED TO DEATH.

Caught Between Two Freight Cars and Almost Instantly Killed.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Cape Charles, Va., March 15.—Frank Vincent, the sixteen-year-old son of Charles Vincent, bridge-tender for the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad, was killed in a shocking manner here this afternoon by being squeezed between two freight cars.

The lad was riding on a car which was being shifted from a barge, and while attempting to alight was caught between the two cars, and his body rolled a cut-length. He was badly mangled, his head and body being mashed almost into a pulp. He died almost instantly.

Auto Record Trials Postponed.

Daytona, Fla., March 15.—The automobile record trials scheduled for the Daytona Beach track this afternoon were postponed until tomorrow on account of the time coming in too rapidly to admit of the timing apparatus to be in working condition.

ASSEMBLY STILL HOLDING SESSIONS

Lone Senator Moves Chair That He Be Allowed to Adjourn.

ECHO OF NOEL CHARGES

Telegram From Mrs. Daniel Is Read—End May Come To-Day.

"Wouldn't this be a peach of a permanent job at $8 per?" commented Col. John S. Harwood as he rose to go after a session of the House of Delegates lasting one minute and forty seconds. Three meetings were held in the House yesterday, and although much time was expended in waiting for enrolled bills, the actual business done was so slight that but a few minutes sufficed. The Speaker performed his duty by signing the bills, and the members did theirs by sitting around and talking of the past sixty days.

Rosewell Page came down from Hanover and occupied his seat when the House met at noon. He had put in Monday starting his days to going, and dragging the roads. That was the only day of the entire session he was missed and he did not think there was a roll call to which he did not answer.

Major J. N. Stubbs, who spent Monday at Warwick Courthouse on legal business, dropped in also. The other members present were Messrs. Wingo, Curtis, Casey and Cox, of Richmond; Throckmorton, of Hanover; Toney, of Manchester; Oliver, of Fairfax; Pharris, of Brunswick; Shepherd, of Fluvanna, and Melroe, of Buckingham.

Abbreviated Session.

Rev. J. J. Whit of Fluvanna county, offered the opening prayer. On motion of Mr. Cox the reading of the journal of the day before was dispensed with, and on motion of Mr. Toney a recess was taken until 12:30. The session had lasted less than two minutes.

There was another long wait when the House reassembled. At last the enrolled bills appeared and were signed by the Speaker, Judge Yarrall, of Greensboro, who had later in his appearance, was seized upon as a proper person to move to adjourn until 4 o'clock, for by this time only five members were in the chamber.

Messrs. Baker, of Chesterfield; Cox, of Richmond; Bell, of Culpeper, and Oliver, of Fairfax, held the fort at 4 o'clock. A few moments later Messrs. Powers, of Caroline, and Statig, of Brunswick, drifted in. A point of order was made against Mr. Bell because he was smoking, but the Speaker's signature, and on motion of Mr. Powers, him off with a warning against smoking in the future.

In stentorian tones Doorkeeper Newhouse commanded silence in the gallery, where a wastebasket reposed in solitude.

"Four members and ten pages," announced Clerk Williams, who had been taking an inventory of the attendance. Speaker Byrd asked his official signature, and on motion of Mr. Powers, the House adjourned until noon to-day.

It could not be told at a late hour last night whether or not the session will end to-day. The enrolling force still had much to do.

Halsey Holds Port Aloft.

Three constructive sessions of the Senate were held yesterday. When President Eliason took the chair at noon, Senator Halsey was the only Senator on the floor.

"Before I make the motion which I am about to make," said Senator Halsey, "permit me to say that Lynchburg pays far more money into the State than it takes out. I may be pardoned, sir, if I say that we have there a city we are proud of whose people are a brave and a law-abiding people, and I submit, with due regard for the other sections represented on this floor, that there are none better. I move that we adjourn until 1 o'clock." By a unanimous vote it was so ordered.

Echo of Noel Charge.

At 1 P. M. a number of bills were read by title and signed by the president.

Clerk Booker read the following telegram, addressed to the Senate: "Mrs. James R. V. Daniel repudiates Noel's remarks in Senate. On way to give specific information."

No action was taken. Mrs. Daniel failed to put in an appearance, and the members of the Senate are ignorant of what she was pursuing, or when she will arrive.

The third session at 4 P. M. was very brief. About two dozen bills were read by title and signed by the president. Adjournment until noon to-day was ordered.

AN ODD MISTAKE THAT WOMEN MAKE.

Women are inclined to fall into a mistaken idea that any pain about the hips or in the small of the back is "female weakness," and must be endured as a trouble peculiar to the sex.

Such patience is noble, but too often unnecessary and unwise. Kidney weakness, in man or woman, will cause backache, sharp twinges when stooping, lifting, bearing down, pains, fits or "blues," nervousness, dizzy spells, headaches, urinary disorders and swelling of the ankles or limbs.

This is the point: Do not worry over supposed "female weakness" until you are very sure it is not kidney disease that is causing your troubles. The nature of a woman's life and work makes her fall an easy victim of kidney weakness. The bending and stooping of housework, the tight clothing worn, the strain of childbearing, and worry of rearing children, the indoor life, colds, fevers and constipation, all wear and weaken the kidneys.

Backache or any such irregularity as the too frequent desire to urinate, painful or scalding passages or sediment in the urine is good cause to judge that you have weak kidneys. Often begin using Doan's Kidney Pills, which have brought new life and strength to thousands of women. It is your duty to self and family not to neglect nor overlook the first symptom.

Overlook the Real Cause of Common, but Mysterious Aches and Ills.

"Every Picture Tells A Story"

Don't wait for a serious case of diabetes, dropsy, Bright's disease, gravel to develop. Doan's Kidney Pills is a simple vegetable remedy, very quick in its healing and strengthening action on the kidneys. It contains nothing of a narcotic, poisonous nor habit-forming nature and can be taken by any man, woman or child, or even the most delicate state of health.

RICHMOND PROOF. Mrs. M. A. Davis, 317 South Pl. Street, Richmond, Va., says: "I have used a medicine that did me as much good, and in so short a time as Doan's Kidney Pills. I suffered and for months from kidney trouble, a my back ached intensely. If I stood or made a quick movement, sharp twinges darted through me, being particularly severe in my kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally procured, and I had only taken them a short time before every symptom of my trouble disappeared. During the three months that have since passed I have had no further cause for complaint."
